If there's one thing Bee and PuppyCat love just as much as they love Pretty Patrick, it's food. Now with this handy-dandy cookbook you can add fanfare to your foodstuff and sparkle to your snacks, or whip up something scrumptious for your friends and pets. Whether you're a beginner like Bee or a master chef like Deckard, this go-to guide to grubbin' will ensure you never miss another ingredient again...

NATASHA ALLEGRI of Adventure Time and Bravest Warriors brings you Bee and PuppyCat, the hit YouTube series that's been ranked as the most successful Kickstarter-funded animation in history. Taking in the mysterious cat-dog creature PuppyCat after he falls from the sky, an unemployed Bee finds her ordinary world flipped upside down as her new pet transports her through space and time to take temp jobs to pay for rent and, of course, food. From lasagna-induced dreams and Pretty Patrick's mashed potatoes to wild adventures on Jelly Planet, Bee and PuppyCat's unpredictable exploits revolve around tasty meals and treats featured in this Easy Eats cookbook. Filled with gorgeous illustrations and recipes that are both sweet and "SII-IICK!", this book takes the magical essence of Bee and PuppyCat's intergalactic exploits and brings it to the comfort of your kitchen table.

Eggplant Lasagna Casserole

1HR 45MIN

I'm so excited about your announcement of the Bee and PuppyCat cookbook! I'm Diana at Fiction Food Café, and I've made a couple of Bee and PuppyCat foods for my blog. One is the eggplant lasagna, which I made in support of the Kickstarter when it was happening back in 2013. Thank you for this opportunity!

But it's not an egg!

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large eggplant, peeled and cut into cubes and sprinkled with salt
- 9 oz. ground beef
- 3 3/4 cups tomato sauce
- extra-virgin olive oil
- salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 onion, sliced
- 3/4 cups ricotta
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 3 mozzarella balls, chopped
- 10 oz. mushrooms
- 6 lasagna noodles, precooked
- 1 cup Parmesan
- 1 bunch basil

PREPARATION

- Sprinkle diced eggplant with salt and let rest for at least 1 hour, until beads of water begin to form and eggplant has lost its bitterness.
- Preheat oven to 400°F. Rinse eggplant under water to remove the salt, then dry it and place it in a pan lined with parchment paper. Drizzle with oil and bake for 10 minutes. Remove from the oven and lower the temperature to 350°F.
- In a pan over medium heat, cook sliced onion, chopped garlic, mushrooms, and ground beef until beef is no longer pink and onion is soft. Reduce heat and add the eggplant, stirring the mixture. Add tomato sauce and cook down until everything is well blended and becomes a sauce.

- Add salt and pepper to taste. In a separate bowl, mix ricotta with mozzarella and set aside.
- Spread a spoonful of eggplant and beef-tomato sauce on the bottom of an 8" x 8" pan and place 2 precooked lasagna noodles on top. Add a couple spoonfuls of cheese mixture next, then add more eggplant and meat sauce. Repeat until sauce and cheese mixture are used up, finishing with the cheese layer. Then top with Parmesan.
- Place a sheet of parchment paper or foil over the lasagna and bake for 25 minutes. Remove foil and bake for another 5 minutes until the cheese is lightly browned.
- Let cool slightly and garnish with fresh basil.

Pan-Cooked Eggplant

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 2 large eggplants | 1 clove garlic |
| 1 tsp olive oil | pinch of salt and pepper |
| ½ bunch Italian flat-leaf parsley | 4 tsp red wine vinegar |

A simple, delicious recipe with healthy and fresh ingredients that's fun to make with family and friends! Or even with your PuppyCat?! Enjoy!

→ SERVES 4 ←

→ COOK TIME ←

25MIN

PREPARATION

- Cut the eggplant into slices about ¼ inch thick. Set a frying pan on medium-high heat to warm. Season the eggplant with pinch of salt and oil and sauté until golden brown on both sides. Remove and set aside on a plate.
- Finely chop parsley, then peel and chop garlic. Mix together in a bowl with a drizzle of oil, a pinch of salt and pepper, and a splash of vinegar. Rub marinade on eggplant and serve cold.

INGREDIENTS

4 cups milk

¼ cup oil
(substitution: melted butter)

6 eggs

1 tsp salt

2 cups flour

¼ cup sugar

PREPARATION

- Mix all ingredients. Sift flour to prevent clumps.
- Let batter sit for approximately 1 hour to let air bubbles settle out.
- Heat 1–2 teaspoons of oil in a pan, and you're ready to make pancakes!
- Drop batter onto pan (you choose the size). Once bottom is lightly browned, flip pancake and brown other side.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 1 clove garlic | 2/3 cup milk |
| 2-3 tsp olive oil | 1 tsp salt
(or to taste) |
| 1 tomato | parsley
and mozzarella
(optional) |
| 1 onion | |
| 6-8 eggs | |

PREPARATION

- Peel and chop garlic. Set a large skillet on medium heat and drizzle oil in the pan.
- Add the garlic and sauté until fragrant. Dice the tomato and onion and add them to the pan, lowering the heat.
- Break the eggs into a bowl, add milk and salt, and whisk until well blended.
- Return the pan with the tomatoes, onions, and garlic to medium heat, and pour egg mixture into the pan, stirring quickly. Once the bottom of the frittata is lightly browned, use a spatula to turn it and let it brown on the other side.
- Move frittata from the pan to a plate and serve warm. Top with parsley or mozzarella if desired.

NextGen Spaghetti Bolognese

Submitted by
Dave "RooCH" G.
& Nilla B.

INGREDIENTS

extra-virgin olive oil	2 tbsp chili sauce
½ white onion	½ sprig rosemary
1 clove garlic	10 basil leaves
2 pieces bacon or chorizo	½ bunch thyme
1 lb. 2 oz. ground beef	Peri-Peri Salt and black pepper to taste
⅔ cup white wine	14 oz. whole wheat spaghetti
1 cup crushed-tomato puree

We get the feeling a Bee and PuppyCat cookbook isn't just about fancy shmancy, so here's our update to the classic spaghetti Bolognese.

→ SERVES 4 ←

→ COOK TIME ←

1HR 30MIN

PREPARATION

- Drizzle extra-virgin olive oil in pan, then add finely diced onion, garlic, and bacon or chorizo.
- When contents of pan are fragrant and onions become translucent, add in beef, turning up heat, and let cook through. Once beef is mostly cooked, add wine and let simmer until reduced by about two-thirds.
- Add tomato puree, chili sauce, herbs, salt, and pepper, and then let cook for about 1 hour on low heat.
- Toward the end of the sauce cooking time, boil water with a bit of salt in another pot and add spaghetti. When spaghetti has cooked, drain water, add pasta to the sauce, and mix well.
- Plate and serve.

Deckard's Beef Curry

Submitted by
Diana Ault

Below is my recipe inspired by the Bee and PuppyCat episode 7 production shots included in Kickstarter update #50. The images show a large pot of curry as well as a dish with rice on it in the shape of perhaps PuppyCat or some other cute creature. There is also something yellow on the plate, under the rice, that might be an omelet, but I wasn't sure, so I didn't include it—though it wouldn't be difficult to add it. ;)

→ SERVES 2 ←

→ COOK TIME ←

1HR 30MIN

INGREDIENTS

- | | |
|----------------------------------|--|
| 1 tbsp oil | 1 tsp black pepper |
| 1 lb. beef stew meat | 1 cup plus ¼ cup flour |
| 1 tsp plus 1 tsp salt | 7 tbsp butter |
| | 1 onion, julienned |
| | 1 clove garlic, minced |
| 2½ tbsp curry powder | 1 medium potato, peeled and halved |
| 1 tsp powdered cayenne pepper | 2 large carrots, peeled and cut diagonally |
| 2 tbsp tomato paste | 1 cup mushrooms, sliced |
| 1 grated apple, peeled and cored | 2¼ cups cooked white rice |
| 2 tbsp Worcestershire sauce | |
| 2 cups beef broth | |

PREPARATION

- Heat oil in a skillet over medium heat. Meanwhile, sprinkle beef with 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon black pepper and cover in 1 cup flour, being sure to coat all sides. Cook the beef until the meat is no longer pink, then remove it from the pan.
- Melt butter in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onion, 1 teaspoon salt, and minced garlic to the pot and stir. Cook until the onions are tender, then add curry powder, cayenne pepper, and ¼ cup flour.
- Stir to mix well and cook for a few minutes. Add the tomato paste and mix well. Stir in grated apple and Worcestershire sauce, then add the beef broth. Reduce heat. Add the potato, along with the carrots, mushrooms, and meat into the pot.
- Cover pot and cook until the vegetables are fork-tender.
- Serve with rice.

INGREDIENTS

1 butternut squash	4 cloves garlic
olive oil	1 bunch fresh sage
salt and pepper to taste	8 cups chicken broth
1 onion	1 tbsp Greek yogurt

PREPARATION

- Preheat the oven to 350°F. Cut the squash into quarters and season with oil, salt, and pepper. Create a packet with aluminum foil and place squash inside. Place on a baking sheet and let brown for about 1 hour.
- Dice the onion into small cubes, then mince the garlic and wash and dry the sage leaves. Sauté onions and garlic in a pot, seasoning with salt and pepper.
- Remove squash from oven and let cool, then add to the pot with onions and garlic. Add the chicken broth and stir. Heat through, then pour contents into blender. Remove cap from the middle of the lid of the blender and fold a towel over, covering the hole, before blending the soup. If it is too thick, add broth or water. Return soup to the stove and reheat over a low flame.
- Heat a frying pan with a teaspoon of olive oil and lightly fry sage leaves until they are crisp, then place them on a plate covered with paper towels.
- Season soup with salt and pepper to taste, then top with Greek yogurt and sage.

24HRS + 2HRS

INGREDIENTS

1 clove garlic, minced	$\frac{3}{4}$ cup brown sugar
2 tbsp soy sauce	1 tbsp salt
juice of 1 lemon	2 tsp black pepper
$\frac{3}{4}$ cup ketchup	2 lb. pork shoulder
1 12 oz. can ginger ale

I imagined Cass or Deckard cooking these. I hope you like my recipes, and if you don't use them, that's okay. I will be happy if you guys from Frederator and Natasha cook one of my recipes and enjoy it. ^_^

PREPARATION

- In a bowl, combine the minced garlic, soy sauce, lemon juice, ketchup, ginger ale, brown sugar, salt, and pepper. Mix well, then brush half of the mixture over the pork and reserve the other half for later. Let pork rest in the fridge overnight.
- The next day, soak bamboo sticks in water for about 20 minutes. Cut the pork into small pieces and string it onto the skewers with about 6 or 7 pieces per skewer.
- Preheat the barbecue to medium-high, then brush the remaining marinade over the skewers. Grill skewers for about 12 minutes per side, turning to ensure even cooking for a total of about 30 minutes, remembering to moisten the meat occasionally.

INGREDIENTS

2 cups tofu

2 tbsp soy sauce

1 tbsp honey

¼ cup apple cider vinegar

4 tsp granulated sugar

3 tbsp sesame oil

⅔ cup extra-virgin olive oil

1 clove garlic, minced

1 tbsp ginger, minced

8 cups chicken or vegetable broth

1⅓ cup canned corn

6 shiitake mushrooms, roughly cut

salt and pepper to taste

1 packet ramen noodles

1 egg

1 carrot, diced

1 sprig chive, minced

seaweed

1 hot chili (optional)

PREPARATION

- Remove tofu from packet, heat, and cut into 1-inch chunks. Move tofu to plate, cover with cloth, and let stand for 30 minutes. Mix together soy sauce, honey, vinegar, sugar, and 1 teaspoon of sesame oil. Pour over tofu and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes.
- Drizzle some of the olive oil and the remaining sesame oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add garlic and ginger and sauté until fragrant. Add broth to the pot and bring to a boil, adding the corn. Once boiling, remove from heat and let rest.
- In a skillet over medium-high heat, drizzle olive oil and then add mushrooms, seasoning with salt and pepper. Sauté mushrooms for about 2 minutes, then let cook in the pan without moving them for about 4–5 minutes. Remove mushrooms, then move to a separate bowl.
- Return the broth to medium heat, adding noodles to the pot. Break egg into the pot and cook for about 4 minutes so that the egg becomes poached. Add in mushrooms, tofu, carrots, chive, seaweed, and chili (if desired).

This is a dish I love to cook for visiting friends. They always leave feeling full and satisfied.

INGREDIENTS

4 eggs	sunflower or grape seed oil for frying
2½ cups bread crumbs or panko	paprika to taste
1½ cups flour	1¾ cups finely diced fried bacon or pancetta
4 skinless, boneless chicken breasts

— SAUCE —

3½ tbsp butter	1 cup whole milk
6 tbsp flour	2 cups cheddar cheese, grated

PREPARATION

- Preheat oven to 350°F. Whisk eggs in a separate bowl and set aside.
- In another bowl, mix together bread crumbs and flour.
- Coat chicken in the egg, then dredge in the bread crumbs and flour.
- In a large pot, heat oil until it is hot but not smoking. Add chicken and cook until it is brown on both sides. Move chicken onto a baking sheet and let cook in the oven for 10 minutes.
- Prepare sauce as follows: In a small saucepan over medium heat, melt butter and stir in flour. Slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened, then add 1½ cups cheddar while mixture is still hot, melting it into the sauce.
- Remove chicken from oven and coat breasts with sauce, the remaining ½ cup cheese, and paprika, and top with chopped bacon.

Potato Leek Soup

This is my favorite thing to make, especially when it's cold or rainy! I'll admit that writing it down as a recipe was difficult. There are not many ingredients, and so you just kind of learn what you like best. So I understand if that makes it less suitable for a cookbook. That said, it's a simple soup to make, and it's the ultimate comfort food and great for sharing! It's also vegetarian and can be easily adjusted to be vegan friendly as well!

PREPARATION

- Wash and peel potatoes and cut into chunks. Cut up leek (white and pale-green parts only) and set aside.
- In a large pot, melt butter, then add leeks, lowering the flame and letting leeks cook through slowly.
- Add potatoes to pot with leek mixture, then cover with water and cream, seasoning with salt, pepper, and rosemary. Lower the heat and let mixture cook until potatoes are soft and cream is reduced.
- Transfer mixture to blender and blend until smooth, then serve.

INGREDIENTS

60 MIN

These are inspired by the scene in Bee and PuppyCat episode 1, "Food," in which Bee is grocery shopping and goes gaga when she sees boxes of fish cakes on the shelf.

INGREDIENTS

Note: You will need a taiyaki pan.

- | | |
|---|---|
| ¼ cup mayonnaise | ¾ cup cooked flaked fish (canned white tuna, broiled cod, or tilapia) |
| 1 egg, beaten | ¾ cup pureed yellow potato |
| 1 tsp flat-leaf Italian parsley, minced | 1⅔ cup bread crumbs |
| 1 tsp Old Bay seasoning | ⅔ cup grated Parmesan |
| zest of 1 lemon (set aside about ¼ for garnish) | oil for frying |
| 1 tsp salt | |
| black pepper to taste | |

PREPARATION

- In a medium-sized bowl, whisk mayonnaise, egg, parsley, Old Bay, lemon zest, salt, and pepper until everything is well blended. Then stir in the fish, pureed potato, bread crumbs, and Parmesan cheese.
- Separate the mixture into four equal portions. Spread a sheet of plastic wrap on a large plate and sprinkle lightly with nonstick spray. Spread a second layer of plastic wrap on a flat work surface. Take a portion of the mixture and place it in the center of the work surface, then use the wrap to fold it over. Form into the shape of a fish, about ¼ inch. Gently lift the fish from the wrap and place it on the plastic-covered plate. Repeat for all portions. Place the dish with cakes near the pan with the preheated oil.

- Spread a few paper towels on a large plate close to the pan. Spray a spatula with nonstick spray and use the spatula to transfer the fish to the pan.
- Heat oil in a skillet over medium heat. Once oil is heated, cook the fish on one side for a few minutes until it is golden, then repeat on the other side.
- Do the same with the other fish and serve hot.

Pour a third of the mixture into the pan, and let fry until the eggs are cooked through. With a spatula, roll one edge of the egg to the other to form the body of the bee. Mashed Potatoes

Submitted by
Diana Ault

In the Bee and PuppyCat episode "Cats," we learn (thanks to a note from Cardamon) that Pretty Patrick's favorite food is mashed potatoes and that he ate a pile of them at the end of the Pretty Patrick Lunchtime marathon.

PREPARATION

- Wash potatoes and place in a large pot. Add enough cold water to cover the potatoes, and salt the water. On medium-high heat, bring water almost to a boil, cooking potatoes until they are fork-tender. Drain water from potatoes, peel and mash, and then put them back into the pot.
- Mix cream, butter, and garlic in a small saucepan and cook over medium heat until butter is melted. Once mixture is heated through, add warm milk and chives, then add entire mix to potatoes, stirring until everything is blended and potatoes are creamy. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Onigiri is a Japanese rice ball, and in this case, it's filled with salmon and mayo and decorated with sandwich meat. This would be great in a bento!

- | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1 cup cooked white rice | salt and pepper to taste |
| ¼ cup mayonnaise | 1 slice roast beef |
| ¼ cup canned salmon or tuna | 1 slice prosciutto or turkey |
| | 1 yellow bell pepper |
| | 1 dried nori sheet |

→ SERVES 6 ←

→ COOK TIME ←

3HR 30MIN

PREPARATION

- Line a small bowl with plastic wrap and wet it slightly with water, then sprinkle a little bit of salt. Wet your fingers and put half of the rice in the lined bowl.
- Mix mayonnaise and fish with salt and pepper. Place the mixture in the center of the rice that you placed in the bowl. Wet your fingers again and create a disc of rice, placing it on top of the fish.
- Gather the edges of the plastic film, wrapping the rice in it, and remove it from the bowl. Compress the rice in the film so that the rice takes on a round shape. Create a flat bottom for the rice ball by pushing it down on a flat surface.
- Wet fingers again and remove the film. Place the ball on a plate with the flat side on the bottom.

PuppyCat Onigiri: Step-by-Step Design!

Use scissors to cut the slice of roast beef in two, creating two semicircles.

2.

Place each semicircle on the plate with rounded side up, where PuppyCat's ears will go.

3.

Cut another two strips of roast beef for PuppyCat's eyebrows.

4.

Fold the roast beef in half and cut round corners for PuppyCat's eyebrows.

5.

Cut two ham or turkey pieces diagonally and create PuppyCat's collar.

6.

Cut the pepper into a large flat piece and then cut it in a big circle.

7.

Place it in the center of the collar to become PuppyCat's bell.

8.

Fold the sheet of nori in two and cut into circles to make PuppyCat's eyes.

9.

Then cut two small strips from the sheet of nori to become the sides of PuppyCat's mouth.

10.

Cut an oval from the sheet of nori, then cut a V shape from the oval to use for PuppyCat's nose.

11.

For the opening of the bell, cut a vertical line with a circle at the top of the nori and attach it to the pepper with a little mayonnaise.

Pretty Patrick Elegant Endive Appetizer

INGREDIENTS

1/4 cup pecan nuts	1 cup crumbled Gorgonzola
2 heads Belgian endive	5 tsp honey

Pretty Patrick seems like a sophisticated guy. It seemed natural to name this delicate, fancy dish after him. He's having a salad at the beginning of episode 3 during his Lunchtime Marathon, so I envisioned this pretty salad appetizer as one of the dishes he might share with you!

PREPARATION

- Toast pecans in a pan for about 5 minutes over medium heat. Remove from heat and allow to cool.
- Separate endive leaves one by one, and arrange in concentric circles in a dish.
- Sprinkle the dish with chunks of blue cheese and toasted pecans, and finish with honey.

| 2 cups all-purpose flour | ¼ tsp cinnamon |
| 1 tsp baking soda | ⅛ tsp nutmeg |
| ¼ tsp salt | 2 eggs, beaten |
| ½ cup butter | 2⅓ cups mashed bananas |
| ¾ cup brown sugar | crushed walnuts (optional) |

PREPARATION

- Preheat oven to 350°F. Lightly grease a 9" x 5" loaf pan. In a large bowl, combine flour, baking soda, and salt.
- In a separate large bowl, cream together butter, brown sugar, cinnamon, and nutmeg with mixer, then stir in eggs and mashed bananas (and walnuts) until well blended.
- Stir banana mixture into flour mixture—stir just enough to moisten. Pour batter into prepared loaf pan.
- Bake in preheated oven for 60–65 minutes until a toothpick inserted comes out clean.
- Let bread cool in pan, then unmold and serve.

PREPARATION

- Let beans soak overnight. Once soaked, drain water, then add to pot and cover with about 1 inch of water, letting cook for 1 hour or until beans are soft. Puree beans in food processor and add ⅓ cup granulated sugar and ⅓ cup brown sugar. Mix until everything is well blended.
- To make the batter, put the flour, baking powder, and ⅓ cup granulated sugar in a bowl and mix. In another bowl, beat the egg, slowly adding in milk. Combine the wet ingredients with the dry, letting the batter rest for at least an hour in the fridge.
- Heat the taiyaki pan on medium heat and coat with oil. Pour the batter ¾ of the way up the pan, then add 1 teaspoon of bean filling, then add more batter and flip. Cook for 2 minutes per side until both sides are golden.
- Unmold and serve.

In episode 1, Bee and PuppyCat go shopping for groceries. Bee totally flips out about a box of fish cakes and starts to wax nostalgic about them. The image on the fish cake box reminded me of taiyaki, literally Japanese fish-shaped cakes. It seemed only right to make one of Bee's favorites a recipe for this book!

INGREDIENTS

Note: You will need a taiyaki pan.

INGREDIENTS

1 cup peanut butter

½ tsp baking soda

1 cup sugar

¼ cup milk

1 vanilla bean

½ cup jam

2 eggs

1⅓ cups "00" or all-purpose flour

PREPARATION

- Preheat oven to 350°F.
- In a medium-sized bowl, mix the peanut butter and the sugar. Stir until mixture is well blended and fluffy. Split open the vanilla bean and scrape seeds into the mixture, and then add eggs.
- Add flour and baking soda in parts, mixing to combine well until mixture becomes the consistency of dough, then add milk.
- Form dough into small balls and place on a baking sheet. Bake the cookies for 9–11 minutes.
- Remove from oven and let cool for a couple of minutes, then top with jam.

This recipe is inspired by Bee's downstairs neighbor and little landlord Cardamon whom we meet in the Bee and PuppyCat episode "Beach." He seems like a no-nonsense, responsible kid whom I can easily imagine sipping tea and eating little tea biscuits (cookies) while relaxing. These butter cookies are perfect with tea and include ground cardamom and lavender buds to reference Cardamon's pretty purple hair.

2HR 10MIN

PREPARATION

- Beat butter and sugar together on medium speed until well blended and butter is fluffy.
- Add lemon zest, lemon juice, lavender buds, cardamom, salt, and vanilla, and stir until ingredients are incorporated. Add the flour all at once and stir.
- Spread a large sheet of plastic wrap on a flat surface and place the dough in the center. Form the dough into a loaf about 1½ inches in diameter, then place in refrigerator to cool

INGREDIENTS

7 tbsp butter, softened	1 tbsp lavender buds
⅓ cup powdered sugar, sifted	2 tsp ground cardamom
zest of 1 lemon	1 tsp salt
¼ cup fresh lemon juice	1 tsp vanilla extract
	¾ cup flour

- overnight or in the freezer for about 30 minutes.
- Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Cut the loaf into oval disks about 1.5 inches thick in diameter and place on lined baking sheet, pricking holes with a fork.
- Place the pan with cookies in the freezer while you heat the oven to 325°F.
- Bake the cookies for about 15 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool on a baking rack.

It's like a Thai iced tea but in whipped cream form, for putting on cookies, cakes, ice cream, or whatever. Pretty Patrick would surely approve.

INGREDIENTS

$\frac{2}{3}$ cup cream	5 tsp powdered sugar
5 tsp Thai tea mix	$\frac{2}{3}$ cup cream cheese, softened

PREPARATION

- 1 In a bowl, mix together cream, Thai tea mix, and sugar, stirring rigorously. Add mixture to pot and let simmer on low heat for 10 minutes. Once flavors have come together, pass mixture through a strainer and refrigerate for at least 3 hours.
- 2 Once mixture is firm, remove from fridge and whisk in the cream cheese until well blended.
- 3 Return mixture to fridge for at least 1 hour, then serve as a mousse.
- 4 Excellent with cookies or dried fruit.

INGREDIENTS

1 1/3 cup brown sugar	1/2 cup fresh ginger
1 2/3 cup raisins	pinch of nutmeg
handful fresh chopped rosemary	pinch of saffron
3 cups apple cider vinegar	pinch of salt
3 lb. 5 oz. pears, seeded and cut into small pieces	red pepper flakes or aleppo pepper (optional)
	1/3 cup olive oil

“ Around this time of year, our pear tree in the garden produces quite a few pears. It’s difficult to know what to do with them, so I have included below the recipe I use for making them into pear chutney. Susie and I go out into the garden to pick the pears, which involves ladders and climbing into the tree.

Our cat, who is called Captain Reynolds, does not appreciate this, as the pear tree is his domain. He sits on the wall next to the tree with a very cross expression rather reminiscent of PuppyCat. Anyway, enjoy the recipe!

PREPARATION

- Put the sugar in a pan and let melt slightly, then add raisins and rosemary until they begin to caramelize. Add the vinegar and bring to a boil, then add pears, ginger, nutmeg, saffron, salt, and red pepper.
- Cook for about 45 minutes and then add in olive oil to emulsify.
- Let cool and serve.

Honey Bee Panna Cotta with Shortbread Cookies

Submitted by

& Melita Tucker

→ SERVES 6 ← → COOK TIME ←
★★★★★★ 1HR 45MIN

We wanted to make a dessert that could actually be on the show, so we tried to envision a lot of different scenarios with Bee and PuppyCat and food. The one that stood out to us the most was Deckard making something for Bee and attempting (and failing) to confess his love to her. We imagine he would try and be really cute and clever, but he would just get too shy and end up stumbling over it and running away.

INGREDIENTS

PANNA COTTA:	SHORTBREAD COOKIES:
1 tbsp gelatin	2.5 cups all-purpose flour
2 tbsp cold water	¼ tsp salt
½ cup milk	½ cup unsalted butter, room temperature
1½ cups heavy cream	¾ cup confectioners' sugar
5 tbsp sugar	2 egg yolks
2 tbsp honey

PREPARATION

PANNA COTTA

- Sprinkle the gelatin over the cold water, stirring to dissolve. Set the gelatin aside for 2–3 minutes to let it bloom.
- In a saucepan over medium heat, add milk, cream, sugar, and honey. Bring to a simmer, then remove from heat, stirring the mixture gently to dissolve the sugar and keep milk from scorching.
- Add bloomed gelatin to the milk mixture, stirring well to incorporate, dissolving gelatin completely.
- Pour into desired molds and place in the refrigerator for at least 1 hour.

SHORTBREAD COOKIES

- In a mixing bowl or stand mixer, beat the flour, salt, and butter together. Next add the confectioner's sugar, stirring together, then add egg yolks until mixture becomes a dough. Roll into a loaf, then place in refrigerator for about 30 minutes.
- Once the dough is chilled and firm, slice dough into ¼-inch-thick medallions. Place cookies on a baking sheet and let cook at 350°F for about 12 minutes.
- Remove cookies and let cool, then serve alongside panna cotta.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 cup whole wheat pastry flour | 1 tsp ground cinnamon |
| 1 cup all-purpose flour | ½ tsp freshly ground nutmeg |
| 1 tbsp yellow curry powder | 1 tsp baking powder |
| ½ tsp ground allspice | ¾ tsp salt |
| | ½ tsp baking soda |
| ½ tsp freshly ground black pepper | ½ tsp vanilla extract |
| ½ cup unsalted butter, at room temperature | 1 cup butternut squash puree (homemade or store bought) |
| 1½ cups loosely packed light brown sugar | ⅓ cup chocolate chips (optional) |
| 2 large eggs, at room temperature | powdered sugar or whipped cream for topping (optional) |

PREPARATION

- Preheat oven to 325°F (if using a convection oven, preheat to 300°F).
- Grease and lightly flour an 8" x 8" baking pan or dish and set aside.
- In a small bowl, combine both flours, curry powder, allspice, cinnamon, nutmeg, baking powder, salt, baking soda, and pepper. Mix well and set aside.
- With a spoon or mixer, cream together butter and brown sugar in a large bowl until smooth and a bit fluffy. Then add eggs one at a time, beating for 30 seconds after each egg. Mix in vanilla extract.
- Take half of the dry-ingredient mixture and add to the butter mixture and stir to combine. Stir in the cup of butternut squash puree. Add remaining flour mixture and stir just enough to combine.

- If you are adding the chocolate chips, do so now. Gently stir them in until they are incorporated. You can also add nuts, raisins, or other treats too! Chocolate chips are my particular favorite though!
- Pour batter into the prepared baking pan and bake 50–60 minutes until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean.
- Serve plain or with a dusting of powdered sugar or maybe some whipped cream!
